Cruisin' Thru to '92

Rocky Mountain College 1511 Poly Drive Billings, Montana

the Yellowstone 1992

CRUISE (kruz): 1) to be on one's way; 2) to travel for the sake of traveling; 3) to go about the streets at random but on the lookout for possible developments; 4) to search for a sexual partner; 5) to fly at the most efficient operating speed. Anyone who has experienced the rigors of student life at Rocky Mountain College can relate to any one of the above definitions of "cruise." When we say we are "cruizin' through to '92" we mean getting through the year as best and as fast as you can while having as much fun as possible with a minimum amount of studying thrown in.

Widenhouse residents put together a mini football field, but not a mini football.

President and Mrs. DeRosier led the parade downtown this year. This year's parade had many participants. Floats in the parade consisted of Anderson Hall, Jorgenson, Widenhouse, ASRMC, Off-Campus residents, SPURS, Ski team, and the Equestrian students. Some of the participants from the Nile Rodeo were also in the parade. Miss RMC Tammy Youngs participated, along with the Homecoming football game cheerleaders.

"I thought we did a pretty good job, I think it should have been publishized more," said sophomore Cathy Zook.

Ski team members Katherine Olson, Dawn Kreiling, Pete Maxwell, Becky Drury, and Matt McGuiree prepare for the parade.

Dave Heringer and Mark Moak had a tough time deciding which residence's hall did the best job. They were enjoying Jorgenson's fine work.

Widenhouse residents used part of their float to add more to their Homecoming decorations.

Operation Welcome Home

Desert Storm Commander H. Norman Schwarzkopf gave a thumbs up to the crowd as he made his way up Broadway during New York's Operation Welcome Home ticker tape parade in June 1991. Schwarzkopf, General Colin Powell, and Defense Secretary Dick Cheney were the grand marshals of the New York parade, with over 600,000 people turning out to welcome the soldiers home. More than one million people attended a welcome home parade in Hollywood, California, and an estimated 800,000 turned out for the parade in Washington, D.C. "U.S.A!" the flag-waving crowd chanted during a half-hour of nighttime fireworks over the East River in New York City. A teary-eyed Korean War veteran said, "These young boys put their lives on the line and now they're getting their reward."

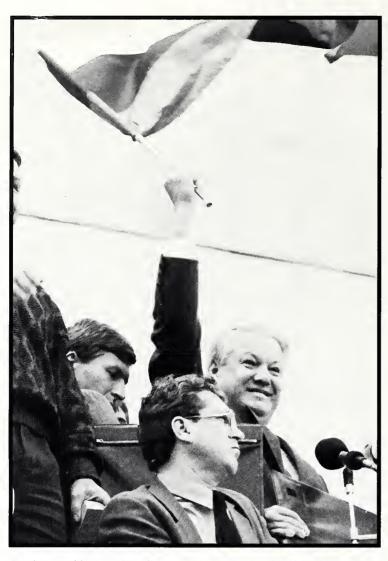

. . . to Those Without a Home

About two million Iraqi Kurds and other minorities fled north in April, 1991, when Kurdish rebels in the north and Shiite Muslum rebels in the south failed to oust President Saddam Hussein in the aftermath of the Persian Gulf War. At least 6700 of the Iraqi refugees died fleeing to the Turkish border. The most common cause of death was through illnesses such as diarrhea and respiratory infections but also included trauma. 63 percent of all deaths occurred among children under age five. The United States spent about $443 million on the Kurdish relief effort. During the seven-month Iraqi occupation of Kuwait, more than 730 oil wells were damaged or set ablaze. Efforts to extinguish the fires should be finished by March of 1992.

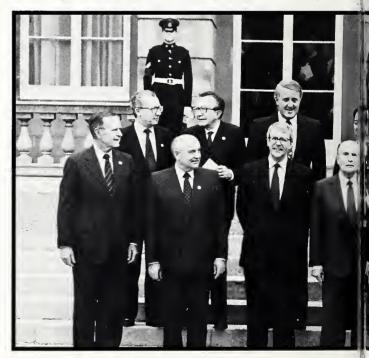

Russian President Boris Yeltsin waved the Russian flag from the Russian Federation building before a crowd of jubilant supporters celebrating the end of the three-day coup.

Before dawn on Thursday, August 22, 1991, an Aeroflat jet arrived at Vnukovo airport, Moscow, bringing home Gorbachev and his entourage.

Leaders of the world's seven largest industrial democracies began arriving in London on July 14, 1991, for the July 15-17 economic summit focusing on aid for the Soviet Union. The summit would not, however, prove to be able to aid in holding the Soviet Union together.

The statue of the founder of the KGB was toppled while thousands of Muscovites watched. It paralleled the destruction of the KGB as it once was; nothing would be as it had been.

The Night An Empire Crumbled

Soviet President Mikhail Gorbachev and his family were placed under house arrest in the Crimea on August 19, 1991, as an eightman emergency committee led by Vice-President Gennady Yanayev took power in a coup attempt in the Soviet Union. The Communist hard-liners who ousted Gorbachev sent the army's tanks rolling within a mile of the Russian Parliament building where Russian President Boris Yeltsin was staying. Yeltsin called on Russians to resist the takeover, and resist they did. Constructing a protective human wall around Yeltsin's headquarters, his supporters demanded Gorbachev's return. On Wednesday, as the Communist Party denounced the takeover, Yanayev and the other coup leaders fled Moscow. Republic after republic began declaring independence from the Soviet Union. Freedom had come to the Soviet Union as had a constant sense of uncertainty.

Carolyn Suzanne Sapp from Honolulu, Hawaii, was crowned Miss America on September 14, 1991.

President F. W. deKlerk, ANC President Nelson Mandela, and Zulu Inkatha leader Mangosuthu Buthelezi came together in September of 1991 for an unprecedented peace talk between the black and white leaders.

National Tragedies . . .

Three actors in a drawn-out melodrama. When Supreme Court Justice Thurgood Marshall announced his retirement, President Bush promptly nominated Clarence Thomas. Questions of sexual harrassment ensued when Anita Hill came forward with allegations of which incidents occurred while Hill worked for Thomas in the Equal Opportunity Commission. Clarence Thomas was confirmed and on October 18, 1991, he became the 106th United States Supreme Court Justice.

At least 19 people were killed, 148 injured, and 5000 evacuated in the Oakland, California area which became the most expensive blaze in United States' history: $5 billion.

On November 7, 1991, Magic Johnson announced he had tested positive for the HIV virus, that which leads to AIDS. He announced his retirement from the Los Angeles Lakers but quickly became a leading spokesperson for AIDS education. Questions have yet to be resolved as to whether Johnson will play in the 1992 Olympics on the "Dream Team."

... in an Ever-Changing World

When Ronald Reagan threw open the doors of his presidential library on November, 5, 1991, he was in good company. The five remaining United States presidents attended: George Bush, Ronald Reagan, Jimmy Carter, Gerald Ford, and Richard Nixon. It was the first of such a gathering.

Thousands have been killed in a civil war in Yugoslavia that began on June 25, 1991, when Croatia and Slovenia proclaimed independence. Strong ethnic and political divisions have existed in that country for centuries, but the peaceful co-existence that has been maintained in the region for decades has splintered. Only time will tell the future for Yugoslavia.

The Finer Things

As with most colleges, Rocky has a few places where its students frequent. Quarter-beer night (Wednesdays) at Dudley's is infamous while other haunts include Shooters, Dr. Feelgood's, and the Lamplighter.

Rich Boutin, Brad Boisvert, and Mark Myers share a "cool" one.

Shannon Lewis entertains guests in her room while roommate, Lani Lorenz, looks on.

Sisters Annie and Jenny Doggett toast one another.

Dan maki in a most picturesque moment.

Mike Bree and Lesa Romano share an intimate moment at a Jorg "gettogether."

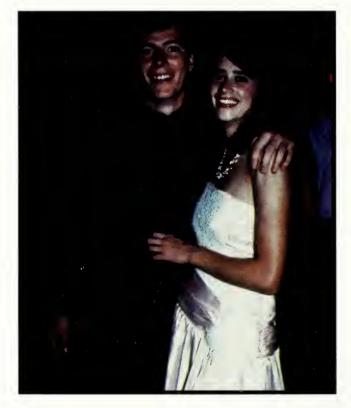

Boys will be boys: Dan Maki, Mike Pizzolato, Joe Stringari, Mike Bree, and Jeff Kinyon.

Just what are Sarah Rountree and Brad Boisvert grinning about?

That's where you hid the stash, Mike (Bree)?

Kelly Marrou and Mickey Reynolds enjoy themselves at the Christmas dance?

Barry Murray as bartender: Brad, What'll ya have?

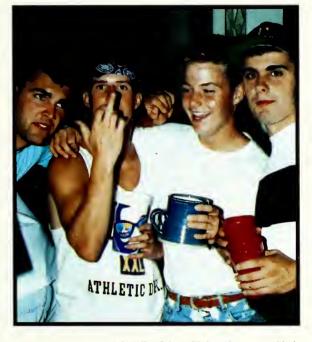

Ladies Night Out: Julia Jackson, Meghan Weber, and Becca Mikulka attend the Christmas dance.

East Meets West: Sarah Braley (Mass.), Roberta Golden (Montana), and lesa Romano (Maine).

Black is the chosen color for Pam Prell, Allison Robothom, and Heather Thompson at the Christmas dance.

We give you a one: Eric Klinefelter, Toby Chapman, Chris Carroll, and Mike Pizzolato.

Still relaxing around Jorg: Sarah Rountree, Joe Stringari, Kelli Eshius, and Mike Bree.

Buffet Fans: Bryan Mullett, Toby Chapman, and Chris Carroll.

Homecoming Dance

Homecoming isn't just about football. This year, due to exceptional effort and planning, Homecoming was a good time for all. The activities included Powder Puff football, a parade downtown, and the dance. The dance, complete with live music, was held at the Ramada.

Mike McGwuire and Darcy Snowdy take a breather.

It doesn't get any better than this, c l a i m Meghan Weber and Brad Boisvert.

Dr. Berkowitz

Nothing More Than a Puppet

On March 20, some students at Rocky Mountain College did some things they didn't know they would ever do — on stage. ASRMC sponsored ventriloquist Dr. Mort Berkowitz to put on a show in Losecamp and the audience was in for a treat. Although volunteers were on stage, audience members that became hypnotized provided many of the laughs. We saw imitations of spacemen, strippers, and Hammer. To this day, I wonder if when you say "Rocky Mountain College" to Chad Booth, Mike Childs, Calley Leppink, or Justin Van Campen will warn us all that the British are coming!

Bungee!

"Holy *#!?@!"

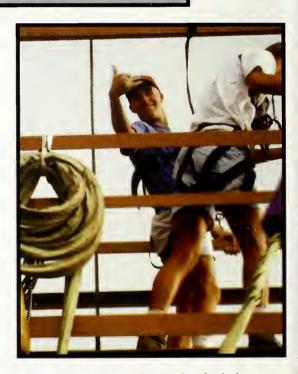

Toby Chapman does a "360°, Double flip, sunny side-up, Kiss-Ass Blaster" from 200 feet up.

Thrill seekers, death defiers, brave and fearless, or just someone with an underdeveloped brain? Whatever the reason, Rocky students hurled themselves from atop a 200 foot crane at the Lamplighter Bar, (after they hurled themselves at the beer truck) and experienced "Ground Rush."

Kristen Machacek thought she was just getting on an elevator.

Toby gives the signal that he's ready to be the human yoyo.

1991 Frontier Conference Champions

The last time the Rocky Mountain College football team won the Frontier Conference title was in 1984 but seven years later, they stole the crown again. Of the four starters leaving this championship team, three were all conference players (Mitch Matuska, Brett Steinmetz, and John Williams); the shoes will be difficult to fill as will the championship be hard to keep. The players feel up to the challenge, however, and with new leaders emerging from the young team, the challenge may not be all that difficult. The Rock held up strong as ever this year with a reputation building up as such. With an offense and defense so tough they racked up more than twenty All Conference and All American awards, the Frontier Conference had better prepare for "Da Bears."

Bowing Out?

In the second game of the season against Dickinson State, Art Jackson broke his leg in two places. Although he didn't play the rest of the season, he still provided the team with integrity that was expected as he held his position as captain. If all goes well, depending on how his injury heals, he will return for his final year next year.

Sweetness

Steve Thompson surprised everyone this year, except maybe himself. He red-shirted his freshman year so this was his first year and did he ever begin his career on top. He accumulated awards as Rocky's starting running back as 1st team All Conference, 1st team All District, and 2nd team All American.

The restoration of Prescott has been a project for many. Ossie Abrams has led the fund-raising with "Pennies for Prescott" as Jason Hannah and Dean Lapke can be seen as the forerunners for much of the actual restoration; there are many others behind the scenes. Some of the many events that have benefitted from the restoration include the Christmas formal which was held in the lobby of Prescott in December and the Haunted House which was held in the basement.

Couples entertain themselves at the Christmas dance: Rich Boutin, Tomoka Baba, Tammy Simmerman, John Oliver, are among the couples.

Vandalism that occurred in the basement of Prescott seemed to be from the hands or Satanic Cults, or at least some not-too-upstanding prankster.

IT'S CLEAR ON TOP

When you're down on the world, and it's down on you.

When you're down in the dumps, and life looks blue,

Just remember, it's probably

CLEAR ON TOP.

Do you work on a tightrope without a net?

Do your bills exceed the national debt,

Hang on, chances are it's

CLEAR ON TOP.

When money is tight, and the price is steep, And you can't get out, 'cause you're in too deep, Don't quit, the odds are it's CLEAR ON TOP.

When you've run out of luck and nobody cares, You're fresh out of friends, and fresh out of prayers, Pray harder, and pray that it's CLEAR ON TOP.

When your troubles are big, and you've run out of hope, And you're hanging alone at the end of your rope,

Climb higher, to up where it's

CLEAR ON TOP.

When the going is tough, and you'd like to quit
Just keep on climbing, a little bit.
'Cause God made it
CLEAR ON TOP.

Graduation 1991-1992

The ceramonies of Commencement began with James Foster and Lori McMullen carrying in the Montana State Flag and the United States of America Flag. The Rocky Mountain College Band set the atmosphere by playing "Pomp and Circumstance."

The graduates began to file in . . .

... and await the faculty and staff.

Roc

From Beginning . .

The ceremonies were well underway as everyone became seated.

Bruce Tweedy was just one of many anxious students ready to receive their diplomas.

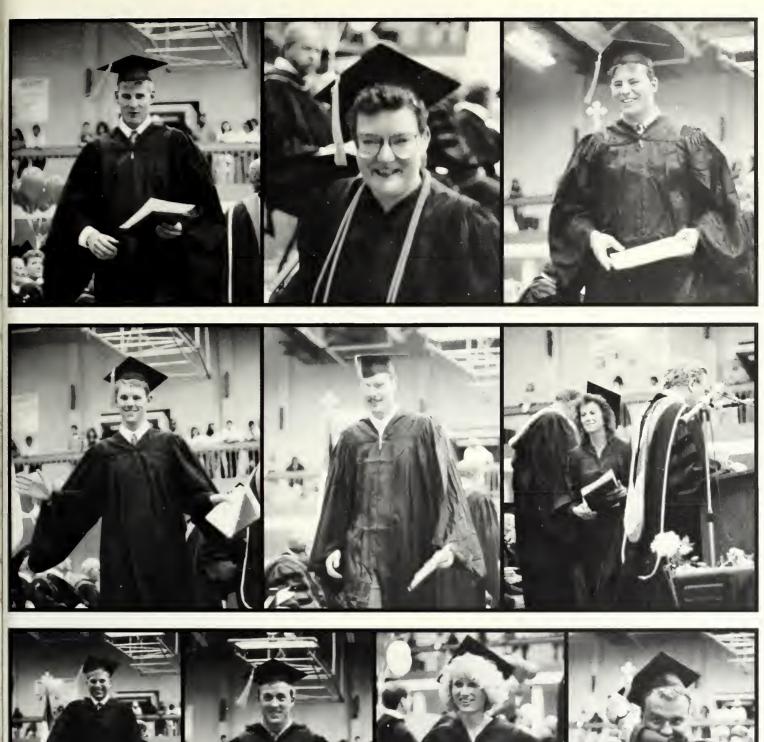

The Rocky Mountain College Choir began with their music . . .

... and the graduates soon rose to receive their diplomas.

President DeRosier hands out one of the first diplomas to Tomoka Baba.

Just a few of the graduates elated to get their long-awaited diplomas.

As the graduates exit in pairs, most are simply classmates although some are a little closer.

Husband and wife, Randy and Kari Wagner, embark on their new careers together.

Brother and sister, Chris and LynAnn Vogele, graduate together.

ROCKY MOUNTAIN COLLEGE FOUNDED 1879

Due to circumstances out of their control, Martin Lee and Jamie Trahan weren't able to be in the Men's Basketball team picture but without them, the team wouldn't be complete!
